March 6, 2009	8:00 PM	Kate Schutt in Concert: Kate Schutt's music is a edgy mix of original jazz and pop. Raised in Chadds Ford, PA, Kate Schutt was schooled in Boston, both at Harvard's English department, where she studied the influence of jazz on modern poetry, and at Berklee College of Music, where she studied jazz guitar. Now living in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, Kate is carving out a niche as a writer, arranger, and performer of new jazz standards on both sides of the border. Her persuasive melodies and arrangements show a deep involvement with the history of jazz and a willingness to flirt with pop gestures and attitudes. Kate won the Grand Prize in the jazz category.	Carmen's de la Calle 720 East Mistletoe San Antonio, TX
